Subject: Human Trafficking Training Course Approval

Dear Brittany Fowler:

This letter is to notify you that the Unbound training course, "Identifying and Responding to Victims of Human Trafficking for Pharmacists & Pharmacy Technicians" (the Course), is approved by the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) in accordance with House Bill 2059 (2019) as of May 31, 2022. With this approval, the Course will be added to the list of HHSC-approved trainings for health care practitioner licensure renewal requirements.

The Course, as revised by Unbound on May 26, 2022, meets all required HHSC Human Trafficking Training Standards.

HHSC appreciates Unbound's submission of a human trafficking training course for health care practitioners.

Each course must comply with all federal accessibility standards, pursuant to Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 AA.

Trainings approved for use in 2022 will remain active until the next review cycle in 2024. Training reviews follow a biennial review schedule and all
