THE UNIVERSITY OF
TEXAS AT AUSTIN
Priority Deadline for Applications: December 10, 2014
THE KILLAM FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAM

The Killam Fellowships Program provides an opportunity for exceptional undergraduate students from American universities to spend either one semester or a full academic year as an exchange student in Canada. University of Texas at Austin students apply to the direct exchange program through partner institutions, register at their home institution and attend the host institution as an exchange student. During the course of their fellowship, University of Texas at Austin students will continue to pay tuition and fees to their home institution.

CANADIAN PARTNER INSTITUTIONS: Acadia University, Carleton University, Dalhousie University, McGill University, McMaster University, Memorial University, Mount Allison University, Queen's University, Université de Montréal, University of Alberta, University of Calgary, University of Ottawa, University of Prince Edward Island, University of Toronto, University of Victoria, Western University, and York University.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS | Students must:

- be an American citizen,
- be currently enrolled, and in good standing, as a full-time undergraduate student (BA, BS or BAH) at an accredited degree-granting institution in the United States (please note that professional degrees are normally not eligible),
- be expected to be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student in good standing during the 2015-16 academic year, should he/she be selected for an award,
- be expected to receive an undergraduate degree in the Spring 2016, or beyond,
- meet the eligibility requirements and regulations of the home university,
- be proficient in English, and in French, should the student plan to study at a French language institution,
- have a superior academic record,
- be able to complete all steps of the application process prior to the published deadlines, and
- be nominated by the home university, in the instance of the direct exchange program.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

- Questions can be forwarded to info@killamfellowships.com
- Applicants must be recommended by their home institution for the direct exchange program
- Applications are reviewed by an independent adjudication committee of faculty members from Canadian and American universities
- Selection is open and competitive, based on a combination of academic standing, personal statements, and references
- The Foundation recognizes that excellence is found in all linguistic, ethnic and religious groups without regard for gender, age, sexual preference or race. The Killam Fellowships Program encourages applications from all interested and eligible candidates.
