Sylvia J. Kerrigan

2017 Ernest E. Smith Lifetime Achievement Award

Ms. Kerrigan is currently Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary at Marathon Oil Corporation. She joined Marathon in 1995 and was named Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary in 2009. She assumed responsibility for compliance and business integrity in 2011, was promoted to Executive Vice President in 2012, and began leading all corporate communications, government affairs and public policy matters in 2014.

Ms. Kerrigan serves as a director of Team, Inc., an S&P 600 industrial services company. She has also served on the board of directors for public policy organizations such as the American Leadership Forum, the American Petroleum Institute General Committee, and the Kay Bailey Hutchison Center for Energy, Law & Business.

Ms. Kerrigan’s prior experience includes an appointment to the United Nations Security Council’s Commission d’Indemnisation in Geneva, Switzerland, where she led the team responsible for evaluating the losses sustained by international energy companies in the Middle East. She also worked in private practice with energy, construction, manufacturing and transportation clients. During law school, she clerked for the Texas Supreme Court.

Rex W. Tillerson

2017 Kay Bailey Hutchison Center Award for Outstanding Leadership in Energy

A native of Wichita Falls, Texas, Rex Tillerson earned a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering at the University of Texas at Austin before joining Exxon Company, U.S.A. in 1975 as a production engineer.

Mr. Tillerson was named senior vice president of Exxon Mobil Corporation in August 2001, and was elected president of the corporation and member of the board of directors on March 1, 2004. He became chairman and CEO on January 1, 2006, and held those positions until his retirement from the company on January 1, 2017 following his nomination for Secretary of State of the United States.

Mr. Tillerson is a former chairman of the American Petroleum Institute. He is also a member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers and a trustee of the Center for Strategic and International Studies. In 2013, Mr. Tillerson was elected to the National Academy of Engineering.

Mr. Tillerson is also a member of the Chancellor’s Council, Development Board and the Engineering Advisory Board for the University of Texas at Austin, where he was named a distinguished alumnus in 2007.
