Are you legally protected?

Make sure at a free Legal Clinic for Income-Qualified LGBTQ Individuals

When: Sunday, April 19, 2015 · 12-5 p.m.
Where: Waterloo Counseling Center
314 E Highland Mall Blvd #301 Austin, TX 78752

Pre-registration is required.

RSVP by telephone at 214-534-1997 or via e-mail to outlaw.ut@gmail.com

For more information, visit http://bit.ly/OUTLawClinic

The clinic offers the following legal services:

- Basic will: Ensures that your funds and property are distributed according to your wishes after death

- Declaration of guardian: Tells a court who you would want to serve as your guardian if the need arose. Guardians may possess and manage your property, and/or have a duty to provide care and protection for you.

- Directive to physicians: Indicates what treatment preferences you would like honored if you were unable to make medical decisions for yourself

- Disposition of remains: Tells a court who shall have the right to control the disposition of your remains after death

- Priority in visitation: Tells a hospital that a designated person shall have the right to visit you if you are admitted

- HIPAA release: Authorizes a hospital to disclose and discuss your health care information with a designated person

- Medical power of attorney: Designates an agent who may make health care decisions for you

- Durable power of attorney: Appoints an agent to manage your legal, financial, and/or business affairs. This may remain valid even if you later become unable to make your own decisions.

Sponsored by: The University of Texas School of Law Pro Bono Program; OUTLaw, LGBTQ alliance at UT Law; and Waterloo Counseling Center