President's Message

Dear Ladies,

I hope you are enjoying this year's ULC events and interest groups as much as I am. Getting together over a meal to visit and enjoy the company of good friends and excellent programs make being part of ULC so special to me. Thanks again to T. J. Campbell, Dorothy Foster, Ouida Wright, Cora Farmer, Dorothy Newcomb, Ingrid Fink, Kaye Abikhaled, Miye Cohen, and Jane Downer who have each had a large role in organizing these events for us. We had such a fantastic turn out for a delicious dinner and David Denney's talk about the ill-fated voyage of LaSalle's ship LaBelle featured at the Bob Bullock Museum of Texas History.

Quite a few of us turned out for a delightful guided tour of the Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Center arranged by Lynn Stokoe and Nancy Podio. We learned a lot about native drought-resistant grasses. Lynn has planned another walk along the city's new boardwalk on Lady Bird Lake, which is a great opportunity to enjoy beautiful Austin weather and scenery. Don't miss it!

Welcome new ULC members Emily Holmquist Baldea, Kathy Moore, Yuli Zhang, and Edna Armendariz! Many of you have already met them at a meeting or interest group. We offer our condolences to the family of Dorothy Blank and the family of Robert Schechter, to Nancy Cardozier on the passing of her husband Ray, and to Betty Ripperger on the passing of her husband Eugene. Memorial contributions to the ULC Endowed Scholarship are always a thoughtful way to remember those we have lost. A big thank you to Jane Downer, Bretna Hackert, and Miye Cohen for keeping us current on our members.

The holiday season is fast approaching and with it we always look forward to our special privilege of being invited to the beautiful festive holiday brunch at the Littlefield Home on the UT Campus. Your invitation will come from President Powers' office, and we hope to see his lovely wife Kim Heilbrun there. It is very important that each of us RSVP (positive or negative) to the President's office.

Remember, you don't stop having fun when you get old—you get old when you stop having fun!

Betty Walton
