This group is meant for those of you who love to read current books or listen to audios, but would rather not go to a monthly book club meeting. All you have to do is purchase a hard-bound current book/audio and pass it along to the next member on the list. (We have subgroups for printed and audio books.) We pass along selections once a month during the academic year. For printed books, selections should have been published within the last 18 months. For audio books, older titles are acceptable. We have a potluck luncheon in May. Details will be available at the October general meeting.

An email is sent each week to the distribution list of "regular" group members to notify them about the next game. Members then respond to the email if they wish to play in the next game. We also maintain a list of substitute players and you can be on this list if you wish to play only occasionally. Substitutes do not receive weekly emails. We welcome both novice and experienced bridge players.

President's Message

Dear ULC Friends:

I hope yours was a nice restful summer, and now you are ready to get back in the swing with old and new ULC friends on September 10th at Westwood Country Club for our first meeting of 2014-2015. Mary Newcomb and Kaye Abikhaled did a wonderful job of sending reminders and collecting dues by the June 30th deadline. TJ Campbell, Ouida Wright, Dorothy Foster, and Cora Jane Farmer have worked hard to plan great programs and some new venues. Even though prices continue to rise, they have tried their best to keep things reasonable. Due to new contractual restraints imposed by the venues, we cannot accept any reservations after the deadline, so please get your registration in on time. Why not go ahead and enter a deadline reminder for each of the meetings on your e-calendar so you won't forget! Catching up with old friends and meeting new ones is without question such an invaluable joy. Where else would we have a chance to meet other interesting women across disciplines at our world-class university?

The form you filled out and sent to Mary Newcomb with your dues are so helpful to Interest Group chairmen who will be contacting you soon about activities. Just call or email the group chair if you want to try a new group. Remember guests are welcome at most events. Also, if you know of eligible, potential new members for our club, bring them as your guests to a luncheon.

If you know some great news or even regrettably some sad news about one of our members, please let me or one of the other officers know. If anyone needs a ride, I will try my best to get you one.

Betty Walton
