

ARH 396K: ADVANCED LECTURE TUTORIAL

If an Art History course is offered at the undergraduate level, but the student needs graduate credit, they (after consultation with the instructor and completion of the consent form) will register for ARH 396K: Advanced Lecture Tutorial. The student will attend lectures and complete required coursework but will do additional work for graduate credit.

Student Name:

UT EID:

Semester: Fall Spring Summer Year:

Unique number:

Course number & title of undergraduate course:

I (student) have read the following:

Final work for this course must be submitted no later than the beginning of the last week of classes. Faculty instructors are required to submit grades for this course no later than the Wednesday following the last class day and must have adequate time to review students' work and assign a final grade.

Master's students: only one Art History independent study (reading tutorial or lecture tutorial) may be counted in the program of work.

According to University guidelines, no graduate student may be an instructor of record for another graduate student. Even though a graduate student is an Assistant Instructor, they are not eligible to supervise a graduate independent study.

Student signature:

Date:

Instructor name:

Instructor signature:

Date:

A copy of this completed form must be emailed to the Art History Graduate Advisor and Graduate Coordinator prior to enrolling.