Troubleshooting problems with the Spider.

Generally, there are two issues that cause problems on the Spider. One is the generator, which will shut off if the safety procedures for opening and closing the doors are not followed exactly. The second issue is the communication between the PC and the instrument.

Restarting the Generator.

As a safety feature, the generator will shut off if the user fails to push the Door button before opening the enclosure sliding doors. You should push the