

BEYOND BORDERS

An evening with Dorit Rabinyan

In 2016, internationally acclaimed Israeli author DORIT RABINYAN published All the Rivers (also known as Borderlife), which became the center of a political scandal in Israel. The momentous novel, sensitive in its details and enthralling at its peaks, was banned from use in high schools curriculum by Israel's Ministry of Education. The book tells a story crisscrossed by physical and emotional borderlines and courageously marks the deceit in the separation between "you" and "I," between "us" and "them." All the Rivers spent more than a year as #1 bestseller in Israel, and has been translated into 17 languages.

All the Rivers will be available for purchase at the event from 6:00 to 6:30 pm.

Co-sponsored by the Mary Lu Joynes Endowment in the Plan II Honors Program and the L.L. and Ethel E. Dean Endowment in the School of Undergraduate Studies.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18

6:30 PM

JOYNES READING ROOM

Carothers Residence Hall (CRD)

2501 Whitis Ave

 MIDDLE EASTERN STUDIES

The University of Texas at Austin