

Statewide Survey of Peer and Recovery Services Funding

Texas Health and Human Services (HHS) contracted with the Texas Institute for Excellence in Mental Health (TIEMH) to conduct a survey of peer and recovery services in Texas. The responding organizations reported their funding sources and for what percentage of the budget each source accounts.

Funding from Government Sources

N and % of Organizations 46 79%

Government Source	N	%
State	45	98%
Federal	31	67%
City/County	20	43%

Percent of Budget from Government Sources

Percent of Budget

- 1-25%
- 26-50%
- 51-75%
- 76-99%
- 100%

Funding from Community Sources

N and % of Organizations 43 74%

Community Source	N	%
Individuals	37	86%
Foundations	32	74%
Service Providers	26	60%
Businesses	24	56%
University	3	7%

Percent of Budget from Community Sources

Percent of Budget

- 1-25%
- 26-50%
- 51-75%
- 76-99%
- 100%

Funding from Insurance Reimbursement

N and % of Organizations 43 74%

Insurance Source	N	%
Medicaid	29	67%
Private health insurance	28	65%
Medicare	25	58%
VA (TriWest, TRICARE)	1	2%

Percent of Budget from Insurance Reimbursement

Percent of Budget

- 1-25%
- 26-50%
- 51-75%
- 76-99%
- 100%

