

Have you had a stroke that affected your ability to use your hands and arms?

Want to contribute to SCIENCE?

We are recruiting individuals who have had a stroke for a research study testing the ability of non-invasive brain and nerve stimulation to improve movement!

You must be at least 18 years old, have some problems moving your arms and/or hands, and have experienced a stroke > 6 months ago.

Interested? Contact us at:

sara.hussain@austin.utexas.edu