

San Antonio Chapter

Building a K-12 Computer Science Learning Community

Monday, September 18, 2017, 5:30 pm to 8 pm
Geekdom Event Center, 131 Soledad Street

- 5:30 pm Networking
- 6:00 pm Special guests and speakers
- 6:45 pm Working Groups – What’s needed to develop a Computer Science Learning Community in San Antonio?
 - Joint educator and industry groups
 - Facilitated by ESC 20
- 7:45 pm Group debrief and next steps
- 8:00 pm Adjourn

Congressman Will Hurd
23rd District of Texas

Dr. Carol Fletcher
Deputy Director, Center for STEM Education, UT Austin
Organizer of WeTeach_CS

Hal Speed
State Director,
CS4TX

Who should attend? K-12 CS educators, other CS educators, coders and IT professionals, advocates and policymakers

Things to do now!

1. Join the CS4TX San Antonio Meetup Group:
<https://www.meetup.com/CS4TX-San-Antonio/> or just look up CS4TX San Antonio
2. Find professional development from WeTeach_CS at
<https://www.weteachcs.org/>.

RSVP at <http://tinyurl.com/cs4tx-sa2017>.

Or email us about the event at cs4tx@sastemic.org.

Educators
Win a free registration for WeTeach_CS, a $400 value.

PARKING

Least expensive: FREE
At the Central Library Garage, 600 Soledad St. (5 blocks)

Closest: Rand Garage, 121 Soledad (in the same building!). $4/hr, $12/day

More options:
<http://parking.geekdom.com>

About CS4TX

CS4TX is a statewide group making computer science education available to all Texas K-12 students, through community building, advocacy, and professional development.

CS4TX San Antonio is a local chapter of the organization.

